From the Editor

This is the fifth New Mexico Guide I have edited. The first was the Spring 2011 issue of New Mexico Bicyclist put out by the Bicycle Coalition of New Mexico. The next three were published by the the New Mexico Bike Summit. This issue is published by the New Mexico Touring Society. I have tried to get the most accurate information I could, but if there is something important out, let me know at cmarsh1956@icloud.com and I will get in next guide.

- Chris Marsh, Editor

About the New Mexico Touring Society

The New Mexico Touring Society is a recreational organization for cyclists of all abilities. Currently we have around 200 members. We offer day rides, overnight and multi-day tours, club meetings and parties, a monthly newsletter, and a website with information on the club and bicycling in New Mexico.

Sound like the thing for you? Then come out to one of our rides. Yearly dues are only $25 ($30 for families). Visit the club web site at www.nmts.org.

New Mexico Prioritized Statewide Bicycle Network Plan

In December, 2018 the New Mexico Department of Transportation (NMDOT) published the New Mexico Prioritized Statewide Bicycle Network Plan. The plan was developed by Bohannan/Huston and Alta Planning and Design in conjunction with the NMDOT, the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), Local city bicycle advisory committees, local Metropolitan Planning Organizations (MPOs) and Regional Transportation Planning Organizations (RTPOs).

You can view and download a copy of the plan here:

New Mexico Adventure Cycling Routes

The Adventure Cycling Association has been mapping out cross country routes in the US since 1973. They currently have three routes that cross New Mexico.

Southern Tier: The ACA Southern Tier Route is a road route from the Pacific to the Atlantic. It crosses New Mexico through Buckhorn, Silver City, Hillsboro, Hatch and Las Cruces.

Great Divide: The ACA Great Divide Route is a mountain bike route from the Canada to Mexico. It is the longest mountain bike route in the world and crosses New Mexico through Abiquiu, Cuba, Grants, Pie Town, Silver City, Hachita and Antelope Wells.

Bicycle Route 66: The ACA Bicycle Route 66 is their latest cross country route. It roughly follows historic US 66 from Los Angeles, California to Chicago, Illinois. In New Mexico, it goes through Gallup, Grants, Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Santa Rosa and Tucumcari.

For more information on the ACA routes, visit their website at www.adventurecycling.org.

Rio Grande Trail

The Rio Grande Trail is a being developed under the leadership of the Rio Grande Trail Commission. The trail will run the length of the state from Colorado to Texas. It will be a multi-use recreation trail for New Mexico residents and visitors to enjoy the natural beauty of New Mexico and the Rio Grande and learn about the culture and history of New Mexico. To find out more about the proposed trail go to <http://www.riograndetrailnm.com>

New Mexico State Bicycle Laws

66-3-701. Bicycles; effect of regulations.

A. It is a misdemeanor for any person to do any act forbidden, or fail to perform any act required by Sections 66-3-701 through 66-3-707 NMSA 1978.

B. The parent of any child and the guardian of any ward shall not authorize or permit any such child or ward to violate any of the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Code [66-1-1 NMSA 1978].

C. These regulations applicable to bicycles shall apply whenever a bicycle is operated upon any highway or upon any path set aside for the exclusive use of bicycles subject to those exceptions stated herein.

66-3-702. Traffic laws apply to persons riding bicycles.

Every person riding a bicycle upon a roadway shall be granted all of the rights and shall be subject to all of the duties applicable to the driver of a vehicle, except as to the special regulations within Sections 66-3-701 through 66-3-707 NMSA 1978.

66-3-703. Riding on bicycles.

A. A person propelling a bicycle shall not ride other than upon or astride a permanent and regular seat attached thereto.

B. No bicycle shall be used to carry more persons at one time than the number for which it is designed and equipped.

66-3-704. Clinging to vehicles.

No person riding upon any bicycle, coaster, roller skates, sled or toy vehicle shall attach the same or himself to any vehicle upon a roadway.

66-3-705. Riding on roadways and bicycle paths.

A. Every person operating a bicycle upon a roadway shall ride as near to the right side of the roadway as practicable, exercising due care when passing a standing vehicle or one proceeding in the same direction.

B. Persons riding bicycles upon a roadway shall not ride more than two abreast except on paths or parts of roadways set aside for the exclusive use of bicycles.

C. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, no bicycle shall be operated on any roadway in a manner that would create a public safety hazard.

66-3-706. Carrying articles.

No person operating a bicycle shall carry any package, bundle or article which prevents the driver from keeping at least one hand upon the handlebar.

66-3-707. Lamps and other equipment on bicycles.

A. Every bicycle when in use at nighttime shall be equipped with a lamp on the front which shall emit a white light visible from a distance of at least five hundred feet to the front and with a red reflector on the rear of a type approved by the division which shall be visible from all distances from fifty feet to three hundred feet to the rear when directly in front of lawful upper beams of head lamps on a motor vehicle. A lamp emitting a red light visible from a distance of five hundred feet to the rear may be used in addition to the red reflector.

B. No person shall operate a bicycle unless it is equipped with a bell or other device capable of giving a signal audible for a distance of at least one hundred feet, except that a bicycle shall not be equipped with, nor shall any person use upon a bicycle any siren or whistle.

C. Every bicycle shall be equipped with a brake which will enable the operator to make the brake wheels skid on dry, level, clean pavement.

Note that the New Mexico mandatory side path law was repealed in 1997. Also note that bicycles are permitted on I-10, I-25 and I-40 in rural areas of New Mexico (outside Albuquerque and Las Cruces).

United States Bicycle Route System

The United States Bicycle Route System (USBRS) is a developing national bicycling route network. Created with public input, USBRS directs bicyclists to a preferred route through a city, county, or state - creating opportunities for people everywhere to bicycle for travel, transportation, and recreation. For more information on USBRS go to the Adventure Cycling website at: <https://www.adventurecycling.org/routes-and-maps/us-bicycle-route-system/>

In New Mexico there are three main routes being studied.

Proposed USBR 75 / Rio Grande Trail Bicycle Route

This route follows the Rio Grande River Corridor north to south on existing roadways and trails.

Proposed USBR 90 / Southern New Mexico

This route in southern New Mexico connects the existing USBR 90 in Arizona to cross New Mexico and connect with El Paso, TX. The natural route would be on NM 9 across the bottom of the state. This route is problematic: lack of access to water, food and services for up to 80 miles; proximity to the Mexican border; and the fact it by-passes two major cities, Silver City and Las Cruces both of which have all the services a traveling cyclist would need including bike shops. NM Bike Summit Inc. advocates that USBR 90 include both Silver City and Las Cruces.

Proposed USBR 66 / "Route 66"

This route follows Adventure Cycling's Bicycle Route 66 and connects two of New Mexico's major cities, Albuquerque and Santa Fe, using the Turquoise Trail National Scenic By-Way.

Bicycle Organizations

National

Adventure Cycling: Adventure Cycling inspires, empowers, and connects people to travel by bicycle. Adventure Cycling is the premier bicycle travel organization in North America with 52,000 members. Website: www.AdventureCycling.org

Bicycle Adventure Club: The Bicycle Adventure Club (BAC) is a non-profit, bicycle touring club for serious cyclists with a current membership exceeding several thousand. Members volunteer to create and lead a variety of bicycle tours, both domestic and foreign for each other. Our heritage goes back over 40 years to the International Bicycle Touring Society; the club as it currently exists began operating rides in 1983. We have a large number of members who have been with the club for many years. We enjoy the camaraderie of exploring the world with our cycling friends on tours developed by club members for other members. Website: bicycleadventureclub.org

International Mountain Bicycling Association: The International Mountain Bicycling Association (IMBA) is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit educational association whose mission is to create, enhance and preserve great trail experiences for mountain bikers worldwide. Website: www.imba.com

League of American Bicyclists: The League of American Bicyclists (LAB) promotes bicycling for fun, fitness and transportation and work through advocacy and education for a bicycle-friendly America. LAB represents the interests of the nation's 57 million cyclists. With a current membership of 300,000 affiliated cyclists, including 15,000 individuals and 700 affiliated organizations, the League works to bring better bicycling to your community. Website: www.bikeleague.org

People Cycling: People Cycling is a recently launched cycling club, which you can join for free, and is led by volunteer ride leaders. We will be offering tours in the United States and overseas. Our tours are made up of a small group of participants (typically 20-30 or so) who want to ride 30 to 55 miles a day over a one or two week period in interesting regions of the world. Website: www.peoplecycling.org

People for Bikes: Launched in 1999 as Bikes Belong, PeopleForBikes includes both an industry coalition of bicycling suppliers and retailers, as well as a charitable foundation. Our foundation is where we house our major programs and engage individual members, affiliate organizations, and corporate sponsors. Website: peopleforbikes.org

Rails-to-Trails: The Rails-to-Trails Conservancy is a nonprofit organization based in Washington, D.C., whose mission it is to create a nationwide network of trails from former rail lines and connecting corridors to build healthier places for healthier people. Website: www.railstotrails.org

Randonneurs USA: Randonneurs USA (RUSA) is a national organization whose goals are to promote randonneuring in the US and provide service to American randonneurs and randonneuses. Established in 1998, RUSA doesn't actually organize any rides, but rather, coordinates the brevets of the Regional Brevet Administrators (RBAs) and clubs who do. RUSA also frequently acts as the interface between the Audax Club Parisien in France and American riders and RBAs, especially with regard to ensuring correct brevet result processing. Website: www.rusa.org

Tandem Club of America: The Tandem Club of America was founded in 1976 by a group of tandem enthusiasts who wished to share their enthusiasm with the uninitiated and to exchange bits of information with other tandem owners throughout the country. Back in the 70's there were not that many tandems out there! Website: www.tandemclub.org

USA Cycling: Located in Colorado Springs, Colo., USA Cycling is recognized as the national governing body of competitive cycling by the United States Olympic Committee and the Union Cycliste Internationale (UCI). Website: www.usacycling.org

Free Bikes 4 Kids NM: Free Bikes 4 Kidz is a nonprofit organization geared toward helping all kids ride into a happier, healthier childhood by providing bikes to those most in need. Website: fb4knm.org

New Mexico Cycling: The mission of the New Mexico Bicycle Racing Association (NMBRA) is to promote and support bicycle racing of all kinds in the State of New Mexico and El Paso. Website: www.nmcycling.org

New Mexico Rails-to-Trails Association: The New Mexico Rails-to-trails Association works to convert abandoned railroad lines located in the Sacramento Mountains into multi-use, multi-access recreational trails. Website: www.nmrailstotrails.org

New Mexico Touring Society: The New Mexico Touring Society is the largest bicycle club in New Mexico and is a recreational club for riders of all abilities, from beginners to experts. Club members plan and lead one-day and multi-day road and mountain bike rides. Website: www.nmts.org

Velo NM: We're doing our part to make the bike life better in New Mexico. Website: www.velonewmexico.org

Albuquerque

Albuquerque Mountain Bike Association: Albuquerque Mountain Bike Association (AMBA) is a non-profit organization serving the greater Albuquerque area. Website: <https://ambanm.org>

ABQ Cycling Club: The ABQ Cycling Club (formally the RIO Cycling Club) is made up of a highly diverse and growing number of Albuquerque cyclists. Our objective is to provide a fun, safe, and inspiring atmosphere for local cyclists to get together and go for a ride. Some members race, but most do not. Either way you're welcome. We have group rides flexible enough to meet your needs whether you are training for the next fundraising tour, trying to upgrade as a racer, or just want to get outdoors and ride with a group of friends. Website: www.riocyclingclub.com

BikeABQ: BikeABQ's mission is to increase the number of bicyclists in Greater Albuquerque for transportation, health, and recreation. They provide education, advocate for the rights of cyclists, and work to create and preserve safe biking environments. Website: www.bikeabq.org

Cycling Peeps: We are a group of women of all ages (over 18) in Albuquerque & vicinity who love to ride our bicycles! We enjoy providing opportunities for all women to learn to ride bikes safely, skillfully & efficiently while improving fitness and having FUN! Cycling Peeps offers road, dirt & adventure rides of various levels year-round, including weekly coed rides because we also love our men. Website: www.meetup.com/CyclingPeeps/

Duke City Wheelmen Foundation: The Duke City Wheelmen Foundation is a registered New Mexico non-profit corporation, and is recognized by the IRS as a tax exempt Public Charity under section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code. The Duke City Wheelmen Cycling Team exists to help promote the activities of the Foundation and help bridge the divide between the cycling advocacy community and recreational (especially racing) cyclists. Website: www.dukecitywheelmen.org

Las Cruces

Bike & Chowder Club: A very informal group of cyclists interested in cycling and eating -- not necessarily in that order -- and spouses who are interested only in eating. Website: www.bikeandchowder.org

Velo Cruces: Velo Cruces is a 501(c)(3) public charity formed in 2015 with the mission of transforming Las Cruces into a great bicycle and pedestrian community. Website: velocruces.org

ZiaVelo Cycling: ZiaVelo Cycling exists to promote a healthy lifestyle and an arena for competitive road and mountain cycling, recreational cycling, and cycling education. Website: ziavelocycling.com

Los Alamos

Tuff Riders Mountain Bike Club: The "Tuff" in Tuff Riders Mountain Bike Club name comes from the surface of rock that we ride on; not because we're "tough". The Pajarito Plateau is the home of the Tuff Riders Mountain Bike Club. The plateau is capped by a geologic formation called the Bandelier Tuff. Website: tuffriders.losalamos.com

Santa Fe

Bike Santa Fe: Bike Santa Fe strives to raise awareness and educate the public about cycling related issues. Our goal is to create community and encourage safe, accessible cycling and to promote bicycles as a healthy, affordable, environmentally-sound means of transportation and recreation. Website: bikesantafe.org

Santa Fe Fat Tire Society (SFFTS): The SFFTS is dedicated to the sport of mountain biking and to providing riders of all levels the opportunity to meet, socialize, improve their skills, and most of all, to have fun. Website: www.santafefattiresociety.org

Seniors On Bikes (SOBs): Seniors on Bikes are a group of road cycling enthusiasts who meet at least once a week, typically on Thursday mornings, to ride the Santa Fe area. Our trips are in the order of 30 miles, but opportunities always exist to extend, or to turn around at any point along the way. Website: www.santafesobs.com

Socorro

Socorro Striders and Riders: Website: stridersandrider.blogspot.com

Taos

Taos Mountain Bike Association: Taos Mountain Bike Association (TMBA) creates, enhances, and protects riding opportunities in and around Taos County and Northern New Mexico. We are backed by the International Mountain Bicycling Association, and are committed to organizing riders and advocating for mountain biking locally and regionally. Website: taosmtb.org
